Our Story

About Canada West Volleyball Club

Since 1997, Canada West Volleyball Club has been a leader in athlete development and excellence within the Canadian volleyball community. Founded by Bruce Edwards (a former National Team and European Professional Athlete) and Tony Wells (a former Canadian Beach National Champion), the club was built on a vision of high-performance training grounded in strong character development.

In 2002, Bruce Edwards stepped into a full-time leadership role, expanding the program to 11 competitive teams and setting a new standard for youth volleyball in the region. Operating out of the premier Rally Pointe facility, Canada West now fields 18–21 teams annually and is recognized as one of the country's most respected and accessible hard court volleyball programs.

This season, Canada West proudly serves 265 members, including 217 athletes, 56 coaches, and 5 board members across 18 competitive teams., ranging from 12U to 18U. (6 boys teams and 12 girls teams) Our scale allows us to deliver high-quality, focused training while maintaining a strong and connected club community.

Our coaching staff includes former National Team athletes as well as Provincial and National champions who bring elite-level experience, mentorship, and leadership to every practice and competition. We are committed to fostering a positive, inclusive, and challenging environment where athletes build confidence, discipline, resilience, and lifelong skills.

Canada West continues to shape the next generation of athletes – both on and off the court – and remains proud to be a cornerstone of the volleyball community.

Where Your Support Goes

Funds raised through our Canada West Golf Tournament go directly back to our athletes and their families. Every dollar generated will go towards making high-level volleyball training opportunities more accessible to more participants.

Your support also provides financial assistance to low-income athletes, ensuring that passionate and dedicated players are not limited by financial barriers. In addition, funds help cover team-building initiatives, expanded tournament opportunities, and additional training sessions designed to elevate athlete development both on and off the court.

By partnering with us, you are investing directly in the growth, confidence, and success of Canada West athletes. The impact is immediate, meaningful, and felt by every athlete in our program.
